

48 PRIZE-WINNING GIRLS TO ARRIVE

High School Students Are to Come Here as Guests of D. A. R.

Forty-eight prize-winning high-school girl citizens, including Lila Marion Elliott, 18, of Mosca, Colo., who saw her first large city and street car last month, will arrive here tomorrow to be the guests of the Daughters of the American Revolution, whose 47th annual Continental Congress opens at Constitution Hall Monday. The girls, one from each State, comprise this year's Good Citizenship Pilgrims.

In Washington the girls will be joined by Miss Helen Marie Bell, Western High School student, who was chosen to represent the District. She lives at 4853 Rockwood parkway N.W. Her father is a Methodist Episcopal missionary in India, and she hopes to secure a scholarship so she may go to college.

The pilgrims will remain here until Tuesday. Mrs. Raymond G. Kimball of Niles Center, Ill., chairman of the Good Citizenship Committee, said. They will make their headquarters at the Lee House, Fifteenth and I streets N.W. Representative Edith Nourse Rogers, Republican, of Massachusetts, will be their hostess when they visit the Capitol, and Justice Roberts will be their host at the Supreme Court Building. Mrs. Roosevelt will receive the girls at the White House.

The D. A. R. national society pays the expenses of the girls on the tour. Lila Elliott's first visit to a city of any size came in March, when she went with her basketball team to Colorado Springs. The Maryland winner, Ruth MacVeen of Chestertown, and the Virginia winner is Huntly Johnson of Waverly.

Two unusual entertainment features for the week-long congress were announced today by Mrs. Geoffrey Croyce, chairman of the Program Committee. The "Singing Red Men" of Bacone College, Bacone, Okla., will appear in a program of American Indian music, and the famous Choral Club of the Anderson (Ind.) High School, with its 70 voices, will render several numbers. The Bacone College Indians, known widely throughout the Southwest, have peculiar harmonic arrangements in their singing and unusual tone qualities, which singers of the white race lack. The group includes Chief Saul, a Choctaw; Dennis Groundhog, a Cherokee; Elmer Feather, a Sioux; Woodrow Wilson, a Choctaw, and Thomas Chubbie, a Choctaw baritone. Mrs. Croyce is completing her third year as chairman of the Program Committee.
